The Commonwealth War Graves Commission (CWGC) is responsible for the commemoration of 11 casualties of the First World War and 13 casualties of the Second World War at two locations in Guyana: Georgetown (Rabbit Walk) Cemetery and Georgetown (Timehri) Memorial.

Georgetown (Rabbit Walk) Cemetery and Georgetown (Timehri) Memorial
The Georgetown (Rabbit Walk) Cemetery war graves plot is situated in the Police Cemetery adjacent to their headquarters in Georgetown.

The Georgetown (Timehri) Memorial, within this cemetery, commemorates those men who have no known grave or whose graves have become unmaintainable.

Guyana casualties
Within our records there are 121 individuals from, or with family connections to, Guyana, or serving in military units associated with Guyana, commemorated in 15 different countries around the world, including Belgium, Canada, Egypt, France, Israel, Italy and the United Kingdom. The largest numbers of Guyanese casualties commemorated outside of Guyana itself can be found at the following sites:

- HALIFAX MEMORIAL, Canada – 24 individuals
- TOWER MEMORIAL, United Kingdom - 6
- SEAFORD CEMETERY, United Kingdom - 3
