

In Memory Of Second Lieutenant

EVELYN WALTER COPLAND PERRY

Royal Flying Corps who died on 16 August 1914 Age 23

Son of Walter Copland Perry, MA, Ph.D., Barrister-at-Law, and Evelyn F. Perry (nee Stopford), of 29, Thurloe Square, South Kensington, London. The first British Officer killed on active service in France during the Great War.

FIRST ON THE ROLL OF HONOUR ALL GLORY TO HIS NAME

Remembered with Honour

ST. ACHEUL FRENCH NATIONAL CEMETERY, AMIENS

7.

|||||
COMMONWEALTH
WAR GRAVES
|||||

COMMEMORATED IN PERPETUITY BY THE COMMONWEALTH
WAR GRAVES COMMISSION